

I travel quite frequently and use the XM Radio for many reasons. Localized weather, traffic & listening to a stations without drifting signals, sports, and Nascar. Traveling the southeast region between FL and the Carolinas, Satellite Radio has become my savior. With the prices of gas these days I still find XM worth every penny I pay. Please do not make any decisions that would change my access or increase rates for this service. Thank You Mike Amira PGA Professional